25. Sexual relationships which pre-date position of authority or trust

(1) Conduct by a person which would otherwise be an offence under this Act against another person is not an offence under section 24 if, immediately before the position of authority or trust arose, a sexual relationship existed between that person and the other person.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if at that time sexual intercourse between such persons would have been unlawful.

(3) In proceedings for an offence under this section it is for the accused person to prove that such a relationship existed at that time.

26. Deliberate transmission of HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease

(1) Any person who, having actual knowledge that he or she is infected with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease intentionally, knowingly and willfully does anything or permits the doing of anything which he or she knows or ought to reasonably know—

- (a) will infect another person with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease;
- (b) is likely to lead to another person being infected with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease;
- (c) will infect another person with any other sexually transmitted disease, shall be guilty of an offence, whether or not he or she is married to that other person, and shall be liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less fifteen years but which may be for life.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, where a person is charged with committing an offence under this section, the court may direct that an appropriate sample or samples be taken from the accused person, at such place and subject to such conditions as the court may direct, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not he or she is infected with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease.

(3) The sample or samples taken from an accused person in terms of subsection (2) shall be stored at an appropriate place until finalization of the trial.

(4) The court shall, where the accused person is convicted, order that the sample or samples be tested for HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease and where the accused person is acquitted, order that the sample or samples be destroyed.

(5) Where a court has given directions under subsection (4), any medical practitioner or designated person shall, if so requested in writing by a police officer above the rank of a constable, take an appropriate sample or samples from the accused person concerned.

(6) An appropriate sample or samples taken in terms of subsection (5)—

- (a) shall consist of blood, urine or other tissue or substance as may be determined by the medical practitioner or designated person concerned, in such quantity as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of determining whether or not the accused person is infected with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease; and
- (b) in the case a blood or tissue sample, shall be taken from a part of the accused person's body selected by the medical practitioner or designated person concerned in accordance with accepted medical practice.

(7) Without prejudice to any other defence or limitation that may be available under any law, no claim shall lie and no set-off shall operate against—

- (a) the State;
- (b) any Minister; or
- (c) any medical practitioner or designated persons,

in respect of any detention, injury or loss caused by or in connection with the taking of an appropriate sample in terms of subsection (5), unless the taking was unreasonable or done in bad faith or the person who took the sample was culpably ignorant and negligent.

(8) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, hinders or obstructs the taking of an appropriate sample in terms of subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence of obstructing the cause of justice and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years or to a fine of not less fifty thousand shillings or to both.

(9) Where a person is convicted of any offence under this Act and it is proved that at the time of the commission of the offence, the convicted person was infected with HIV or any other life threatening sexually transmitted disease whether or not he or she was aware of his or her infection, notwithstanding any other sentence in this Act, he or she shall be liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than fifteen years but which may be enhanced to imprisonment for life.

(10) For purposes of this section—

- (a) the presence in a person's body of HIV antibodies or antigens, detected through an appropriate test or series of tests, shall be prima facie proof that the person concerned is infected with HIV; and
- (b) if it is proved that a person was infected with HIV after committing an offence referred to in this Act, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that he or she was infected with HIV when the offence was committed.

27. Administering a substance with intent

(1) Any person commits an offence if he intentionally administers a substance to, or causes a substance to be administered to or taken by, another person with the intention of—

- (a) stupefying; or
- (b) overpowering that person, so as to enable any person to engage in a sexual activity with that person.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under this section it is for the complainant to prove that the accused person administered or caused the alleged victim to take any substance with a view to engaging in a sexual activity with the alleged victim.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is, in addition to any other offence under this Act, liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than ten years.

28. Distribution of a substance by juristic person

(1) Any juristic person commits an offence if he intentionally distributes or administers a substance to, or causes a substance to be distributed by other persons with the intention of—

- (a) stupefying; or
- (b) overpowering another person,

so as to enable any person to engage in a sexual activity with that other person.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under this section it is for the accused person to prove that he did not distribute or cause to be taken any substance with a view to one person engaging into a sexual activity with another person.

(3) A juristic person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than five million shillings or imprisonment of its directors for a term of not less than ten years or both.

29. Cultural and religious sexual offences

Any person who for cultural or religious reasons forces another person to engage in a sexual act or any act that amounts to an offence under this Act is guilty of an offence and is liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than ten years.

30. Non-disclosure of conviction of sexual offences

A person who has been convicted of a sexual offence and who fails to disclose such conviction when applying for employment which places him or her in a position of authority or care of children or any other vulnerable person or when offering or agreeing to take care of or supervise children or any other vulnerable person is guilty of an offence and liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or to a fine of not less than fifty thousand shillings or to both.

31. Vulnerable witnesses

(1) A court, in criminal proceedings involving the alleged commission of a sexual offence, may declare a witness, other than the accused, who is to give evidence in those proceedings a vulnerable witness if such witness is—

- (a) the alleged victim in the proceedings pending before the court;
- (b) a child; or
- (c) a person with mental disabilities.

(2) The court may, on its own initiative or on request of the prosecution or any witness other than a witness referred to in subsection (1) who is to give evidence in proceedings referred to in subsection (1), declare any such witness, other than the accused, a vulnerable witness if in the court's opinion he or she is likely to be vulnerable on account of—

- (a) age;
- (b) intellectual, psychological or physical impairment;
- (c) trauma;
- (d) cultural differences;
- (e) the possibility of intimidation;
- (f) race;
- (g) religion;
- (h) language;
- (i) the relationship of the witness to any party to the proceedings;
- (j) the nature of the subject matter of the evidence; or
- (k) any other factor the court considers relevant.

(3) The court may, if it is in doubt as to whether a witness should be declared a vulnerable witness in terms of subsection (2), summon an intermediary to appear before the court and advise the court on the vulnerability of such witness.

(4) Upon declaration of a witness as a vulnerable witness in terms of this section, the court shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (5), direct that such witness be protected by one or more of the following measures—

- (a) allowing such witness to give evidence under the protective cover of a witness protection box;
- (b) directing that the witness shall give evidence through an intermediary;
- (c) directing that the proceedings may not take place in open court;
- (d) prohibiting the publication of the identity of the complainant or of the complainant's family, including the publication of information that may lead to the identification of the complainant or the complainant's family; or
- (e) any other measure which the court deems just and appropriate.

(5) Once a court declares any person a vulnerable witness, the court shall direct that an intermediary referred to in subsection (3), be appointed in respect of such witness unless the interests of justice justify the non-appointment of an intermediary, in which case the court shall record the reasons for not appointing an intermediary.

(6) An intermediary referred to in subsection (3) shall be summoned to appear in court on a specified date, place and time to act as an intermediary and shall, upon failure to appear as directed, appear before the court to advance reasons for such failure, upon which the court may act as it deems fit.

(7) If a court directs that a vulnerable witness be allowed to give evidence through an intermediary, such intermediary may—

- (a) convey the general purport of any question to the relevant witness;
- (b) inform the court at any time that the witness is fatigued or stressed; and
- (c) request the court for a recess.

(8) In determining which of the protective measures referred to in subsection (4) should be applied to a witness, the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including—

- (a) any views expressed by the witness, but the court shall accord such views the weight it considers appropriate in view of the witness's age and maturity;
- (b) any views expressed by a knowledgeable person who is acquainted with or has dealt with the witness;
- (c) the need to protect the witness's dignity and safety and protect the witness from trauma; and
- (d) the question whether the protective measures are likely to prevent the evidence given by the witness from being effectively tested by a party to the proceedings.

(9) The court may, on its own initiative or upon the request of the prosecution, at any time revoke or vary a direction given in terms of subsection (4), and the court shall, if such revocation or variation has been made on its own initiative, furnish reasons therefor at the time of the revocation or variation.

(10) A court shall not convict an accused person charged with an offence under this Act solely on the uncorroborated evidence of an intermediary.

(11) Any person, including a juristic person, who publishes any information in contravention of this section or contrary to any direction or authority under this section or who in any manner whatsoever reveals the identity of a witness in contravention of a direction under this section, is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or to a fine of not less than fifty thousand shillings or to both if the person in respect of whom the publication or revelation of identity was done is under the age of eighteen years and in any other case to imprisonment for a term of not less three years or to a fine of not less than two hundred thousand shillings or to both.

(12) Any juristic person convicted of any offence under this section shall be liable to a fine of one million shillings.

(13) An accused person in criminal proceedings involving the alleged commission of a sexual offence who has no legal representation shall put any questions to a vulnerable witness by stating the questions to the court and the court shall repeat the questions accurately to the witness.

32. Vulnerable witness to be notified of protective measures

(1) The prosecution shall inform a witness who is to give evidence in criminal proceedings in which a person is charged with the alleged commission of a sexual offence, or if such witness is a child, such child, his or her parent or guardian or a person in loco parentis, of the possibility that he or she may be declared a vulnerable witness in terms of section 31 and of the protective measures listed in paragraphs (a) to (e) of section 31(4) prior to such witness commencing his or her testimony at any stage of the proceedings.

(2) The court shall, prior to hearing evidence given by a witness referred to in subsection (1), enquire from the prosecutor whether the witness has been informed as contemplated in this section and the court shall note the witness's response on the record of the proceedings, and if the witness indicates that he or she has not been so informed, the court shall ensure that the witness is so informed.

33. Evidence of surrounding circumstances and impact of sexual offence

Evidence of the surrounding circumstances and impact of any sexual offence upon a complainant may be adduced in criminal proceedings involving the alleged commission of a sexual offence where such offence is tried in order to prove—

- (a) whether a sexual offence is likely to have been committed—
 - (i) towards or in connection with the person concerned;
 - (ii) under coercive circumstances referred to in section 43; and
- (b) for purposes of imposing an appropriate sentence, the extent of the harm suffered by the person concerned.

34. Evidence of character and previous sexual history

(1) No evidence as to any previous sexual experience or conduct of any person against or in connection with whom any offence of a sexual nature is alleged to have been committed, other than evidence relating to sexual experience or conduct in respect of the offence which is being tried, shall be adduced, and no question regarding such sexual conduct shall be put to such person, the accused or any other witness at the proceedings pending before a court unless the court has, on application by any party to the proceedings, granted leave to adduce such evidence or to put such questions.

(2) Before an application for leave contemplated in subsection (1) is heard, the court shall direct that any person, other than the complainant, whose presence is not necessary, may not be present at the proceedings.

(3) The court shall, subject to subsection (4), grant the application referred to in subsection (1) if satisfied that such evidence or questioning—

- (a) relates to a specific instance of sexual activity relevant to a fact in issue;
- (b) is likely to rebut evidence previously adduced by the prosecution;
- (c) is likely to explain the presence of semen or the source of pregnancy or disease or any injury to the complainant, where it is relevant to a fact in issue;
- (d) is not substantially outweighed by its potential prejudice to the complainant's personal dignity and right to privacy; or
- (e) is fundamental to the accused's defence.

35. Medical treatment orders

(1) A court shall upon conviction of a person having committed a sexual offence and if satisfied that the convicted person is dependent on or has the propensity to misuse alcohol, any drug or is suffering from any other disorder, and may benefit from treatment, grant an order for treatment or professional counseling and such an order shall be made in addition to any sentence, including a sentence of imprisonment which is not suspended.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a court shall, at any time at the request of a victim of sexual offence or an intermediary, grant an order for the treatment of a victim of sexual offence.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Minister responsible for Health shall prescribe circumstances under which a victim of a sexual offence may at any time access treatment in any public hospital or institution.

(4) The expenses incurred for the treatment or professional counseling of any person convicted of an offence under this section or a victim of a sexual offence as the case may be, shall be borne by the State.

(5) All treatment in respect of a treatment order or professional counselling granted under this Act shall be undertaken at a public hospital or institution or any other institution approved or gazetted by the Minister responsible for health.

(6) All medical records relating to treatment pursuant to subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall be kept and may be used as evidence before any court with regard to any offence under this Act.

[Act No. 7 of 2007, Sch.]

36. Evidence of medical, forensic and scientific nature

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 26 of this Act or any other law, where a person is charged with committing an offence under this Act, the court may direct that an appropriate sample or samples be taken from the accused person, at such place and subject to such conditions as the court may direct for the purpose of forensic and other scientific testing, including a DNA test, in order to gather evidence and to ascertain whether or not the accused person committed an offence.

(2) The sample or samples taken from an accused person in terms of subsection (1) shall be stored at an appropriate place until finalization of the trial.

(3) The court shall, where the accused person is convicted, order that the sample or samples be stored in a databank for dangerous sexual offenders and where the accused person is acquitted, order that the sample or samples be destroyed.

(4) The dangerous sexual offenders databank referred to in subsection (3) shall be kept for such purpose and at such place and shall contain such particulars as may be determined by the Minister.

(5) Where a court has given directions under subsection (1), any medical practitioner or designated person shall, if so requested in writing by a police officer above the rank of a constable, take an appropriate sample or samples from the accused person concerned.

(6) An appropriate sample or samples taken in terms of subsection (5)—

- (a) shall consist of blood, urine or other tissue or substance as may be determined by the medical practitioner or designated person concerned, in such quantity as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of gathering evidence in ascertaining whether or not the accused person committed an offence or not; and
- (b) in the case of blood or tissue sample, shall be taken from a part of the accused person's body selected by the medical practitioner or designated person concerned in accordance with accepted medical practice.

(7) Without prejudice to any other defence or limitation that may be available under any law, no claim shall lie and no set-off shall operate against—

- (a) the State;
- (b) any Minister; or

in respect of any detention, injury or loss caused by or in connection with the taking of an appropriate sample in terms of subsection (5), unless the taking was unreasonable or done in bad faith or the person who took the sample was culpably ignorant and negligent.

(8) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, hinders or obstructs the taking of an appropriate sample in terms of subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence of obstructing the course of justice and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years or to a fine of not less fifty thousand shillings or to both.

37. Keeping scene of crime secure, etc.

(1) Any person who intentionally interferes with a scene of crime or any evidence relating to the commission of an offence under this Act is guilty of an offence and is liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or to a fine of one hundred thousand shillings or to both.

(2) Interference referred to in subsection (1) includes but is not limited to—

- (a) tampering with a scene of crime;
- (b) interference or intimidation of witnesses; and
- (c) any other act or omission that would hinder or obstruct investigations or materially misrepresent any evidence.

38. Deleted by Act No. 12 of 2012, Sch.

39. Supervision of dangerous sexual offenders

(1) A court may declare a person who has been convicted of a sexual offence a dangerous sexual offender if such a person has—

- (a) more than one conviction for a sexual offence;
- (b) been convicted of a sexual offence which was accompanied by violence or threats of violence; or
- (c) been convicted of a sexual offence against a child.

(2) Whenever a dangerous sexual offender has been convicted of a sexual offence and sentenced by a court to imprisonment without an option of a fine, the court shall order, as part of the sentence, that when such offender is released after serving part of a term of imprisonment imposed by a court, the prisons department shall ensure that the offender is placed under long-term supervision by an appropriate person for the remainder of the sentence.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2), long term supervision means supervision of a rehabilitative nature for a period of not less than five years.

(4) A court may not make an order referred to in subsection (2) unless the court has had regard to a report by a probation officer, social worker, or other persons designated by the court for the purposes of this section as such, which report shall contain an exposition of—

- (a) the suitability of the offender to undergo a long-term supervision order;
- (b) the possible benefits of the imposition of a long-term supervision order on the offender;
- (c) a proposed rehabilitative programme for the offender;
- (d) information on the family and social background of the offender;
- (e) recommendations regarding any conditions to be imposed upon the granting of a long-term supervision order; and
- (f) any other matter directed by the court.

(5) An order referred to in subsection (2) shall specify—

- (a) that the offender is required to take part in a rehabilitative programme;
- (b) the nature of the rehabilitative programme to be attended;
- (c) the number of hours per month that the offender is required to undergo rehabilitative supervision; and
- (d) that the offender is required, where applicable, to refrain from using or abusing alcohol or drugs.

(6) An order referred to in subsection (2) may specify that the offender is required to—

- (a) refrain from visiting a specified location;
- (b) refrain from seeking employment of a specified nature; and
- (c) subject himself or herself to a specified form of monitoring.

(7) A long-term supervision order made by a court in terms of this section shall be reviewed by that court within three years from the date on which the order was made or within such shorter period as the court may direct upon referral by the Commissioner of Prisons of such an order to that court for review.

(8) Upon making a long-term supervision order in terms of this section, the court shall explain to the victim, including the next of kin of a deceased victim, that they have the right to be present at the review proceedings referred to in subsection (7) and may make representations.

(9) A court which has granted a long-term supervision order in terms of this section may, upon evidence that a dangerous sexual offender has failed to comply with the order or with any condition imposed in connection with such order, direct that such an offender be—

- (a) ordered to appear before that court or another court of similar or higher jurisdiction at a specified place and on a specified date and time; or
- (b) arrested and brought before such court.

(10) Upon the appearance of a dangerous sexual offender at a court pursuant to the provisions of subsection (9), the court shall direct the accused person to show cause for failure to comply with a long-term supervision order or with any condition imposed in connection with such order and the court may—

- (a) confirm the original order and any conditions imposed in connection with such order;
- (b) vary or withdraw such order or any conditions imposed;
- (c) impose an additional condition or conditions; or
- (d) make any other order as the court deems fit.

(11) If a court has directed that a dangerous sexual offender is required to take part in a rehabilitative programme contemplated in this section, the court may order that the offender, upon being found by the court to have adequate means, shall contribute to the costs of such programme to the extent specified by the court.

(12) A person who has been declared a dangerous sexual offender and who does not comply with a supervision order in accordance with this section is guilty of an offence and is liable upon conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or to a fine of not less than fifty thousand shillings or to both.

(13) A register for convicted sexual offenders shall be maintained by the Registrar of the High Court and any person who has reasonable cause to so examine it may examine the register.

40. Attorney-General to decide whether police investigations should be discontinued

The decision as to whether the prosecution or investigation by any police officer of a complaint that a sexual offence has been committed should be discontinued shall rest with the Attorney-General.

41. Extra-territorial jurisdiction

(1) A person who, while being a citizen of, or permanently residing in Kenya, commits an act outside Kenya which act would constitute a sexual offence had it been committed in Kenya, is guilty of such an offence and is liable to the same penalty prescribed for such offence under this Act.

(2) A person may not be convicted of an offence contemplated in subsection (1) if such a person has been acquitted or convicted in the country where that offence was committed.

42. Consent

For the purposes of this Act, a person consents if he or she agrees by choice, and has the freedom and capacity to make that choice.

43. Intentional and unlawful acts

(1) An act is intentional and unlawful if it is committed—

- (a) in any coercive circumstance;
- (b) under false pretences or by fraudulent means; or
- (c) in respect of a person who is incapable of appreciating the nature of an act which causes the offence.

(2) The coercive circumstances, referred to in subsection (1)(a) include any circumstances where there is—

Sexual Offences

- (a) use of force against the complainant or another person or against the property of the complainant or that of any other person;
- (b) threat of harm against the complainant or another person or against the property of the complainant or that of any other person; or
- (c) abuse of power or authority to the extent that the person in respect of whom an act is committed is inhibited from indicating his or her resistance to such an act, or his or her unwillingness to participate in such an act.

(3) False pretences or fraudulent means, referred to in subsection (1)(b), include circumstances where a person—

- (a) in respect of whom an act is being committed, is led to believe that he or she is committing such an act with a particular person who is in fact a different person;
- (b) in respect of whom an act is being committed, is led to believe that such an act is something other than that act; or
- (c) intentionally fails to disclose to the person in respect of whom an act is being committed, that he or she is infected by HIV or any other life-threatening sexually transmittable disease.

(4) The circumstances in which a person is incapable in law of appreciating the nature of an act referred to in subsection (1) include circumstances where such a person is, at the time of the commission of such act—

- (a) asleep;
- (b) unconscious;
- (c) in an altered stated of consciousness;
- (d) under the influence of medicine, drug, alcohol or other substance to the extent that the person's consciousness or judgment is adversely affected;
- (e) mentally impaired; or
- (f) a child.

(5) This section shall not apply in respect of persons who are lawfully married to each other.

44. Evidential presumptions about consent

(1) If in proceedings for an offence under this Act, it is proved—

- (a) that any of the circumstances specified in subsection (2) existed; and
- (b) that the accused person knew that those circumstances existed, the complainant is to be taken not to have consented to the act unless sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue as to whether he or she consented, and the accused is to be taken not to have reasonably believed that the complainant consented unless sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue as to whether he or she reasonably believed it.

(2) The circumstances are that—

- (a) any person was, at the time of the offence or immediately before it began, using violence against the complainant or causing the complainant to fear that immediate violence would be used against him;

- (b) any person was, at the time of the offence or immediately before it began, causing the complainant to fear that violence was being used, or that immediate violence would be used, against another person;
- (c) the complainant was, and the accused was not, unlawfully detained at the time of the commission of the act;
- (d) the complainant was asleep or otherwise unconscious at the time of the commission of the act;
- (e) because of the complainant's disability, the complainant would not have been able at the time of the commission of the act to communicate to the accused whether the complainant consented;
- (f) any person had administered to or caused to be taken by the complainant, without the complainant's consent, a substance which, having regard to when it was administered or taken, was capable of causing or enabling the complainant to be stupefied or overpowered at the time of the commission of the act.

(3) In subsection (2)(a) and (b), the reference to the time immediately before the act is, in the case of an act which is one of a continuous series of sexual activities, a reference to the time immediately before the first sexual activity began.

45. Conclusive presumptions about consent

(1) If in proceedings under this Act it is proved that the accused person committed any offence and that any of the circumstances specified in subsection (2) existed, it is to be conclusively presumed—

- (a) that the complainant did not consent to the commission of that act; and
- (b) that the accused person did not believe that the complainant consented to the act being complained of.

(2) The circumstances are that—

- (a) the accused person intentionally deceived the complainant as to the nature or purpose of the act complained of;
- (b) the accused person intentionally induced the complainant to consent to the act complained of by impersonating a person known personally to the complainant.

46. National policy framework

The Minister shall—

- (a) prepare a national policy framework to guide the implementation, and administration of this Act in order to secure acceptable and uniform treatment of all sexual related offences including treatment and care of victims of sexual offences;
- (b) review the policy framework at least once every five years; and
- (c) when required, amend the policy framework.

47. Regulations

The Minister may, in consultation with the Ministers for the time being responsible for matters relating to Internal Security, Prisons, Social Services, Education and Health, make regulations regarding—

- (a) any matter which is required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed by regulations;

Sexual Offences

- (b) the inter-sectoral implementation of this Act; and
- (c) any other matter which is necessary or expedient to prescribe in order to achieve or promote the objects of this Act.

47A. Chief Justice may make rules

The Chief Justice may make rules of Court for the implementation of this Act.

[Act No. 7 of 2007, Sch.]

48. Transitional provisions

The provisions of the First Schedule shall apply.
